AUGUSTA, Jan. 8.

Special dispatch to Charleston papers from Chattanooga [illegible] Bragg addressed the citizens of [illegible] and Winchester on Monday, assuring them he would not leave them to the enemy but would make a stand between Allisonia and Tullahoma. He had fallen back to give his brave men repose after battles in which they had exhausted their energy. He stated our loss [illegible] thousand killed and wounded and that of the enemy 15,000 or 20,000. Yankees have advanced six miles from Murfreesboro committing wanton depredations.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 8.

It is believed our army will defend the line of Duck River. Murfreesboro' is said to be unoccupied by either force. Morgan and Forrest have returned. They captured and paroled three thousand prisoners and killed and wounded a large number.

YANKEE CAVALRY RAID.

RICHMOND, Jan. 8.

Yankee cavalry about two hundred strong visited White House, present terminus York River Railroad, this morning, and destroyed a sloop and other property found there. Two gunboats were reported approaching up Pamunkey River; the object probably is to break up the trade between Richmond and York river.

RALEIGH, Nov. 27, 1862.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE States having deemed it necessary to call into service, under the provisions of the recent act of Congress, all persons liable to military duty between the ages of 18 and 40 years, the Commanding Officers of the Militia will call out their respective Regiments and enroll and conduct to the Camp of Instruction all persons liable to military duty under the law, at such times as Colonel Peter Mallett, Chief Enrolling Officer for the State, may direct.

Our danger now comes from the North side of [illegible] river, and as the enemy [illegible] nearer to our borders it becomes North Carolinians to rush even more promptly than before to the defence of our own territory. If we can drive him back once more, as we have so often done, there is every reason to hope that his strength will be effectually broken. The various officers entrusted with the execution of this order are again commanded to use all diligence in arresting deserters and absentees without leave from the army, and all good citizens who prize liberty and independence, are earnestly invoked to assist in hurrying up all such to their regiments. The brave and patriotic soldier will not now stay in [illegible] unless providentially hindered. The coward alone will shirk (at home) whilst his braver comrades endure the heat and [illegible]

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Many persons in the State are ready to contribute what they can spare in clothing, shoes, blankets, &c. for the benefit of the soldiers of North Carolina, provided they can be made certain that the articles sent will reach their destination. We have taken some pains to ascertain how this can be done, and the following is the result of our inquiries. These arrangements may be relied upon:

1. Governor Vance has ordered the Captain of every militia district in the State to call upon each family in [illegible] blankets, quilts, linsey, leather, shoes, socks, carpets and clothes ready made, to be delivered by the Colonel of the regiment to the Quartermaster in Raleigh, to be forwarded by him to the proper regiment or company.

2. Besides this, the people of one or more Captain's districts, if their donations are sufficiently large to justify it, may select a gentleman whom they may prefer to carry on their donations to the regiment or company, and the State will furnish the transportation and pay the necessary expenses of the agent.

3. All articles donated should be carefully put up in packages, bags, boxes or barrels, and then should be legibly directed to the soldier or company for whom they are intended, naming the company and regiment, and if possible the brigade.

4. Persons who wish to send articles to any soldier or company, but who do not find it convenient to deliver it to the Captain of their district, or to a special Agent, by directing it carefully as above, may deliver it to the nearest Railroad Agent, directed to the care of Captain C. W. Garrett, Quartermaster at Raleigh, N. C., and it will be promptly forwarded.

5. All articles intended for sick or wounded soldiers, or for hospitals, must be carefully directed and sent to the care of Surgeon General Warren, Raleigh, N. C.

CAMP HOLMES, Nov. 29, 1862.

SPECIAL ORDERS,
No. 12.

I. COMMANDING OFFICERS OF MILITIA REGIMENTS are required to assemble all persons subject to the provisions of the act entitled "an act to amend an act entitled an act to provide further for the public defence," approved September 27, 1862, and enroll the same.

II. An Enrolling Officer and an Examining Board will be appointed for each Congressional District, who will give due notice to the Commanding Officers of Regiments to bring the Conscripts to the County Seats of their respective Counties for examination. Immediately upon examination, the said Commanding Officers of Regiments will conduct all Conscripts not having received certificates of exemption to the Camp of Instruction, near Raleigh.

III. All persons who may desire to volunteer must do so before the 15th of December, the day set apart for enrollment, and must join companies which were in the service of the Confederate States on the 16th of April, 1862.

IV. Applications for exemption must, in all cases, be made to the Enrolling Officer of the District; duplicate copies of said application being made in writing, duly sworn to before an acting Justice of the Peace, and bearing the certificate of the Clerk of the Court, given under the County Seal and sent through the Colonel of the Regiment. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the Enrolling Officer to the Commandant of Conscripts.

V. All Conscripts engaged on Government works will be enrolled and returned to their said work.

In issuing the above orders for the enrollment of Conscripts between the ages of 18 and 40, the Commandant avails himself of the opportunity to thank the State Officers for their untiring and laborious efforts in the discharge of their duties and the efficient and ready assistance rendered to him in their official capacity heretofore.

The importance and absolute necessity of renewed energy and prompt action in executing these orders faithfully, is fully expressed in His Excellency Governor Vance's General Order, No. 10.

The efficiency of the army and the safety of our country depends, in a great measure, upon their faithful discharge of these duties.

In accordance with instructions from the Secretary of War the following General Order, No. 94, is published:

By order of Col. PETER MALLETT,

ADJ'T & INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RICHMOND, Nov. 27, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 94.

Commandants of conscripts will cause the following order to be published for at least seven times in a sufficient number of newspapers in each State of the Confederacy to ensure its reaching every part of the country.

I. All commissioned officers and enlisted men who are now absent from their commands from any other cause than actual disability, or duty under orders from the Secretary of War, or from their department commanders will return to their commands without delay.

II. Commissioned officers failing to comply with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph within a reasonable length of time, in no case to exceed twenty days after the publication of this order, shall be dropped from the rolls of the army in disgrace, and their names will be furnished to the commandant of conscripts for enlistment in the ranks.

III. All enlisted men who shall fail to comply with the provisions of paragraph I., of this order, within a reasonable length of time, shall be considered as deserters, and treated accordingly, their names to be furnished to the commandant of conscripts, in their State for publication, or such other action as may be deemed most efficacious.

IV. In order to ensure the efficient co-operation of all concerned to carry this order into immediate effect, Department Commanders are directed to require from the commanding officer of each separate command in their Departments a prompt report of the names of all commissioned officers and enlisted men now absent from their commands. These reports must state in each case the cause of absence, and any regimental, battalion or company commander who shall neglect to furnish such a report, or who shall knowingly be guilty of concealing any case of unauthorized absence, shall, on conviction thereof, be summarily dismissed.

V. Under the provisions of the 2d clause of paragraph I. of General Orders No. 82 commissioned officers and privates who are incapable of bearing arms in consequence of wounds received in battle, but who are otherwise fit for service, are required, if not otherwise assigned to report to the nearest commandant of conscripts in their respective States who will, if they are fitted for such duty, assign them to the collection of stragglers and the enforcement of the provisions of this order, with full power to call upon the nearest military authority for such assistance as may be necessary thereto.

VI. Officers of the Quartermaster's Department, charged with payment of troops are hereby directed not to pay any commissioned officer, non-commissioned officer or private who does not furnish satisfactory evidence that he is not liable to the penalties described in the foregoing order. Any disbursing officer who shall make payment in violation of this order shall be liable on his bond for the amount of such payment.

IMPORTANT FROM NEWBERN.

[BY UNDERGROUND ROUTE.]

January ...

J. L. PENNINGTON:—Dear Sir: The Yankee force in Newbern is about 30,000 men, and Maj. Gen. Negly's Division is landing at Morehead City and camping at Carolina City. The ... and ... New York landed at that place one week ago ... and are there waiting for the balance of the division. Wilmington was the place of attack, but the iron-clads did not turn up right, one having put in at Beaufort harbor badly damaged and unfit for service until repaired, and the other iron-clads supposed to be lost at sea. Since the disaster among the iron-clads the Yankee programme may be changed and the attack made on Goldsboro' or Weldon. The Yankees say they have three hundred Indians, but my opinion is they are negroes painted up as Indians. A Yankee chaplain last Sunday and also on Christmas day made a proclamation to the negroes at Newbern, declaring them all free. On Gen. Foster's last raid ... Hamilton, or Williamston, ... a number of carriages and fine goods. ... and she is driving around town in a grand style.

MOVEMENTS OF THE ENEMY.—The Examiner of yesterday says:

"A rumor was current on yesterday that General Sumner and his division had left Aquia creek on transports for the South.

It was also reported via Petersburg, that a grand expedition of gunboats and transports under the command of General Negly, had left Fortress Monroe on the 1st instant for some Southern point.

From indications deemed unmistakable, the enemy is preparing to make a grand demonstration upon Goldsboro' or Wilmington, and there is little doubt that the first clash of arms will come to our ears from that quarter. In the Southwest the hostile armies are probably both too much exhausted to do anything for a long time to come."

A part of the expedition under Negley has reached Morehead City, and the balance, we hope, has gone to the bottom of the sea.

[illegible]

... there is some virtue in human ... A correspondent of the Charlotte Bulletin says that Mr. ... Hemphill, jr., of Old Fort, McDowell county—

"Has in a quiet, unostentatious way ... soldiers and their families with a zeal and patriotism worthy of emulation. He has not only entertained at his hospitable board free of charge numbers of soldiers, but has positively refused two and a half dollars per bushel for corn at his crib, and is delivering it at one dollar per bushel to the destitute families of soldiers—some even at fifty cents. Also, ... wheat and selling it ... per bushel. ... of the widow and orphans ... the recipients of their favors. But Mr Hemphill is not alone in doing this good work—others of his neighbors are endeavoring to walk in his footsteps. Mr. John Hemphill, of Dysartsville, in this county, has seven hundred bushels of corn, which he is distributing to the poor families of soldiers alone, at seventy five cents per bushel. They are 'casting their bread upon the waters which will return to them again after many days.' Would you find true and unadulterated patriotism, visit the mountains of North Carolina.
